

K-Love serves my community; it provides positive community benefit through it's social and spiritual message and we don't want to lose the benefit of it's service to other radio stations; this is an example of public use for the benefit of many and we encourage continued support by the FCC for this station and financial non-profit supporters.